OF MUSKINGUM COLLEGE
NEW CONCORD, OHIO

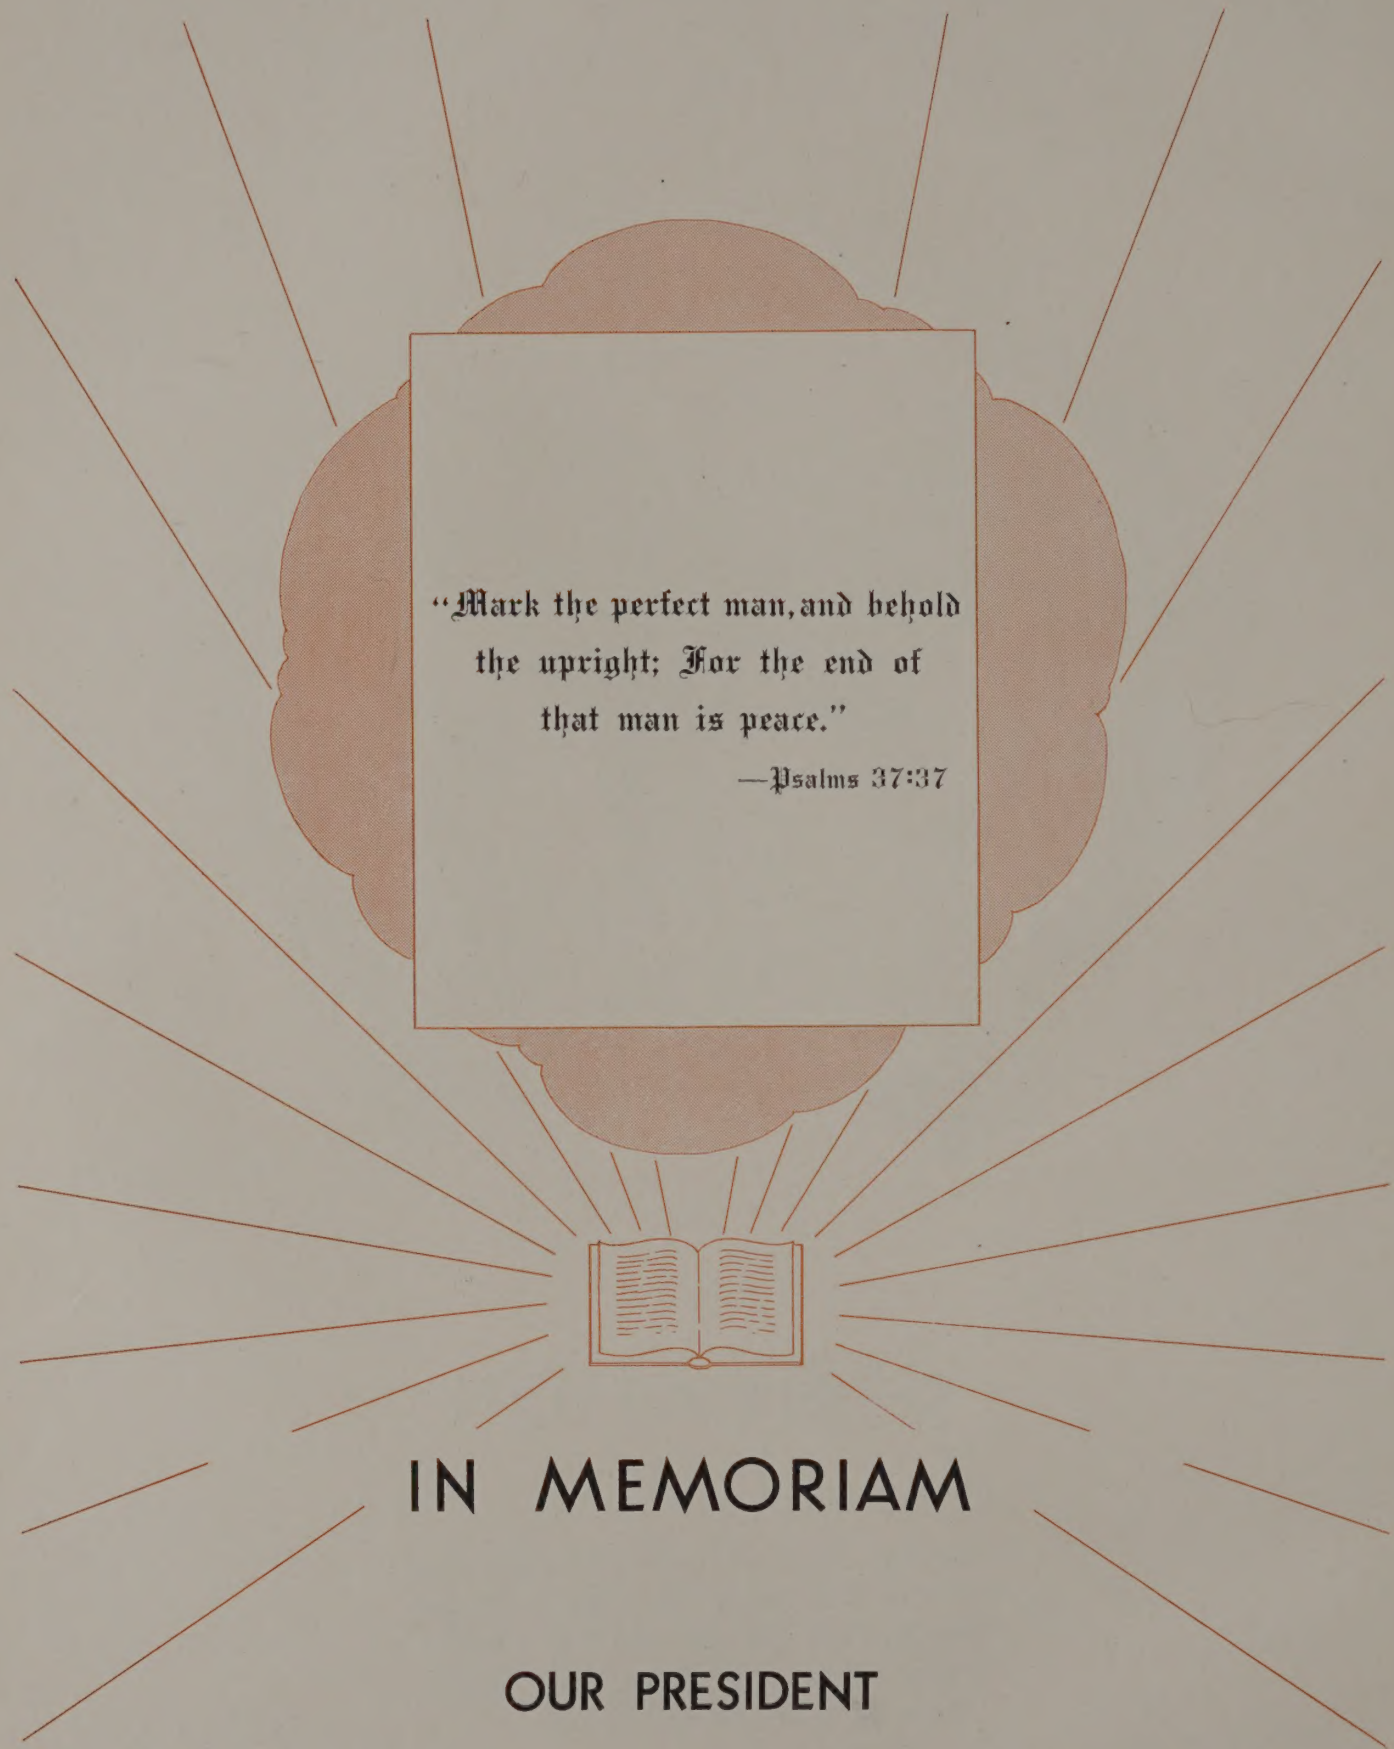

FOREWORD

While we pause for a few moments as the days of our lives crowd swiftly upon us, may we find among these pages happy thoughts and remembrances of days gone by.

DEDICATION

To that spirit of love and fellowship in the friendship existing between Muskingum College and the land of Ethiopia is this Nineteen Thirty-
Three Muscoljuan dedicated.

"Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright; For the end of that man is peace."

—Psalms 37:37

LENA J. AITKEN

She is quietly reserved and one might deem her reticent until he has discovered the real warmth of her friendship. An interest in music and in teaching shows that she likes people. Her good nature will make her happy even in the common walks of life.

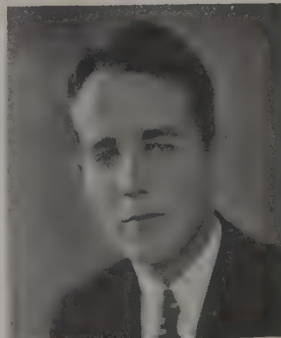

DELMAR W. ANDERSON

Anderson is an athlete, being a member of both football and basketball squads. He acquits himself well in his studies, is amicable with everyone, appreciative of character and attentive to maintaining his own standards. Bus is a local boy who made good.

LOYAL E. ASHCRAFT

Everyone who follows his schedule knows he's a busy fellow in track season. Without regard for the weather, in rain, or in sunshine he must be on hand to keep his team fit and ready for action. But always good humored and jolly—this is "Ashie."

J. EUGENE AULD

Change the letters in Auld around and you have "laud," and laud is what we must do to him for he is a credit to all he represents. Gene's business ability, optimistic disposition, high ideals, and appearance contribute to his popularity.

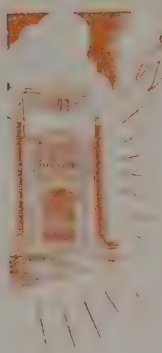

JACOB BERG

Here is another of those fellows who knows when to speak and what to say. Jake's chief interest is in the realm of athletics, especially intra-mural competition when he can help to bring home the bacon to the Sphinx Club.

CLARENCE O. BOGER

Clarence came to Muskingum from Miami in his sophomore year, but soon proved himself a loyal Muskie. In that same year he won for himself the college heavy-weight boxing championship. Persistence and patience mark him as one bound to succeed.

MILDRED G. BOYD

There is, behind that somewhat serious countenance we see, a quiet spirit, warm and true. The heart beats stronger when it impells a hearty "hello" in response to an early morning greeting. Mildred cheerfully performs small tasks which build the roads to greater heights.

S. KATHERINE BOYD

Who can forget Kay as the Pied Piper of Hamelin, dancing right out of the story book into our May Queen's court? Her elfin-like ways belie the fact that she really can be a practical little miss for we know her to be ever willing to help.

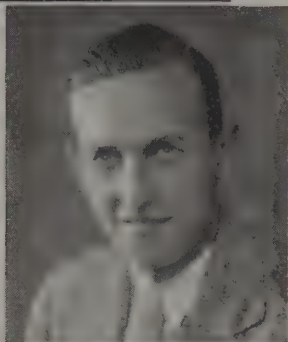

NELDA E. BROWN

It is said that life is what you make it and Nelda seems to have room for all the joys it holds. Her friendly, cheerful ways brighten even the dulllest moments. Full of fun and pleasure she is a comrade true.

RUTH BROWN

Impulsive, friendly, a ready smile—these seem to characterize Ruth. Her hair in perfect waves and her pink and white complexion make a lovely appearance to greet our eyes. All of this combined with an insatiable desire to tease and an interesting personality gives us Ruth.

ALFRED F. BUCKMAN, JR.

Al is one of our members who has achieved a scholastic record of which he can be proud for he has made his mark. No matter what he's doing he never shirks his task. Happy ways with his sport and pleasure make Al a hearty friend.

VIOLET C. CALHOUN

We are all glad to have Violet with us again after her absence to teach. To be thus far along signifies hard work and fearlessness. Violet should be proud to have reached this goal for it is the spirit with which we tackle duties that stamps us.

GERTRUDE B. CAMPBELL

'T were impossible to dislike Gertie; she is so full of vitality. Her snapping brown eyes, that cheery unconventional smile, and the way she frankly states the point, are mere glimpses into a clear, deep well of understanding.

DAVID A. CANNON

Dave's the man who is insuring the financial success of our year book. We feel safe with him as our purser for his business ability and his quiet but efficient manner prove his dependability. His courteous gentlemanlike ways will be a valuable asset to his work in the financial world.

MARY E. CASKEY

Mary has a manner that is difficult to penetrate. She seems to tower apart from others and you must search to know her. But once you have broken this barrier you enter another realm and find a different personality, a friend frank and true.

CHARLES H. CHUR

His interest in the contents of the history and economics shelves of the reserve room may indicate a leaning toward a business profession. Chick is good natured; perhaps upon occasions he drops that dry laconic remark that saves the situation, Who knows?

EUGENIA L. CLARK

One wonders what makes her so gay and free. She appears as though she had no cares, but those who are now in this third year of college life are convinced she must have many. Whatever it is, work or pleasure, she puts forth that zeal and pep that are so characteristic of her.

MARTHA ELIZABETH CLOSSMAN

Rosy cheeks and laughing eyes characterize this fair maiden from Zanesville. Peaceful and quiet she goes her way with a light heart and a spirit full of ambition. Her friendships we have found are deep and immovable.

VIRGINIA LEIGH COLVIN

Virginia fulfills the hopes of advocates of hereditary influence. The related distinction and handicap of famous parents, have not spoiled this quiet little New Yorker. She is diligent in studies, loyal in friendship, cosmopolitan in aspect—those ideals so representative of Muskingum's spirit.

JEAN ANNETTE CONNER

We find her trustworthy, capable, and cultured. But in addition to this there is something refreshing about Jean, for her pleasant manner and ready smile leave us with a sense of peace and tranquility. Perhaps this is but another manifestation of the harmony which she expresses through her musical nature.

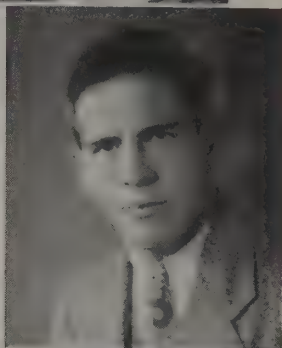

EULA LEE CRUM

One might truly think of Eula as a comfortable soul. She enjoys equally an innocent practical joke and a serious discussion of the Reformation leaders. Her pleasant southern ease has brightened many a dreary hour. The stage of life is alluring, worthy of truth and effort to her who nobly tries.

MARY SUE DENNISON

Considerate and generous, Mary Sue always takes advantage of every opportunity for a good deed. She is always willing to be of what service she can to insure the comfort of others. It is these small kindnesses and her understanding that make her friendships so worthwhile.

JAMES M. DORWART

Red is another of the outstanding line-men of last year's conference champion football team which Muskingum put on the field. Red won a place in the All-Ohio team as a result of his stellar playing. His friendly spirit has won many friends on and off the gridiron.

WAVA B. DOWNING

Wava's fair wistfulness is indicative of her ethereal loveliness. She's a quiet girl to most of us, but her intimate friends tell us that she has a keen sense of humor and a ready wit. If we would know her better we must seek her out.

ERNEST W. DUNN

Dunn lives up to his name. When he does anything it is done. Ernie has earned for himself the reputation of a thinker and a persistent and dependable worker. He has applied himself very effectively to his duties as assistant business manager of the Muscoljuan.

EDWIN M. FOOTE

Eddie's favorite expression is "When I was in New York". Whether in business, in musical circles, or as an actor, he is always the same—even tempered, jovial, and kind, possessing those qualities that assure him success in whatever line he enters.

ELIZABETH A. FELLERS

She was with us but one semester, yet we remember her as one distinctive among us. She always appeared light-hearted, and cheery, full of laughter and song. She was a messenger of good will. May she succeed in her work beyond our campus walks.

EMILY FIFE

Emily is peppy and vivacious. Her rollicking good humor and her contagious laugh insure her a host of friends. She will always enjoy life for she never fails to see the funny side of things. Her favorite pastime is making others have a good time.

ELBERT FINLEY

Finley is a New Concord man who has contributed his personality to the class, thus adding to its merit. He's a self-confident, poised person, yet not overbearing or affected with any superior ideas, but kindly and friendly to everyone.

BURNELL FORD

Fords are noted as automobiles that go anywhere and our Ford lives up to that reputation for he carries on for the school, class, and himself in a very creditable manner. The way he wades through those three foreign languages would do credit to a genius.

HILDA GIBSON

She who lives in harmony with others has learned one secret of success and happiness. Unselfish and always looking for the best in others, she forgives their defects and joins in the work and fun of each day's pursuit.

ROBERT H. GIBSON

Bob has proved himself to be a hard and willing worker. Cheerful, with a keen sense of humor and ready wit, he has cultivated the friendship of many students. Bob likes biology and if you want to find him, call the biology laboratory first.

FLORABEL GLASS

Florabel is quite versatile. She is rather quiet but perhaps this is because of her high degree of efficiency. Hers is an artistic as well as a competent nature and we find her to be domestic too for she is a home economics major.

HOLLIS GREENE

Holly is a quiet person who impresses us with his sincere, Christian faith and character and his eagerness to help anyone. His strength and ability as a wrestler was great enough to win the college wrestling championship for him last year.

RONALD R. GREENE

Honk! Honk! You jump to safety and turn to see Ron go flying by in the Co-Op truck while he greets you with a cheery "Hello". He is impulsive, yet quiet, and drives his work, studies, and character as skillfully as he does that truck.

WILBUR S. GREGORY

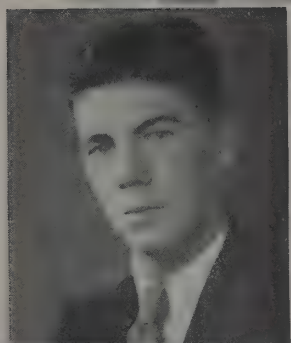

Journalism, Greek, literature, dramatics, and what not. Who is there that does not admire the clear-sighted, calm capabilities of this veritable little general? With his head above the clouds, he will walk in service, sure-footed and triumphant.

HAZEL HEAVILIN

"Wholesome" is a truly complimentary expression and aptly suits Hazel. She is one of that multitude of goodly common folk, who by patience, love, and kindly interest, build foundations of power. The dullest classroom seems much brighter, just to hear a quaint remark or query—from her.

H. PAUL HENDERSON

We have found him to be among those who have less to say but whose deeds and actions reveal his friendly, cheerful ways. Assume the role of the observer and you too will agree that Paul is the very best of chaps and a worthy member of the class of '33.

MARJORIE HENDERSON

Marjorie is worthy of the name friend for she always thinks of the interests of others before her own. She has a sincerity and an earnestness in her manner which is appealing. But under her sweet and quiet appearance we find an abundance of fun.

MARY ELLEN HENSHAW

Though Mary is out teaching from time to time she always returns that sincere and eager friend. Whether in playing a game of hockey or trying a recipe in the home economics laboratory she always exhibits that pleasantness which makes her friendships so delightful.

JOHN W. HESLIP

John may be a common name but this one is no common man. He has developed a well rounded personality, spiritually, physically, socially, and mentally. His many skills, wit and wisdom, friendliness, sincerity, and willingness to work account in part for his popularity.

EDITH CLAIRE HICKS

Edith just came to us from West Liberty, so we haven't been able yet to find out all her abilities. A frank earnestness in her work and the co-operation she elicits in student affairs prove her loyalty to Muskingum, and merit a full return of the cordiality she dispenses.

MARY ELIZABETH HIMES

A charming personality and a distinctive appearance which is enhanced by her delightful smile characterize Mary Lib. Her accomplishments are numerous for she is talented in both music and art. She has not been with us long for her last two years have been spent at Wittenberg.

PEARL E. HOOK

Her dainty neatness and charming manner are indicative of a heart of finest gold, that beats with kindly love for the many who are happy to call her friend. Truth and constancy, uniting with diligence, lead to success, and backed by girlish playfulness we find a—Pearl.

DOROTHY CAROLYN HORN

Carolyn is a quiet little girl from Zanesville. We see in her work those characteristics of the ideal mathematician—neatness, accuracy, and evidences of good reasoning and concentration. Her interests lie not only in the realm of science and mathematics, but in athletics as well.

SADIE R. KARNES

Pure, sombre, lights are ever gleaming with good will in this pair of deep brown eyes. The intangible sweet grace of her very human, playful self adds rich melody to the college notes of our life symphonies. Sadie has friends, for she herself is friendly.

KATHERINE KENDALL

There is something striking in Kay's ways, perhaps it is her charm or goodness or her eyes sparkling with mirth that makes her such an amiable person. The earnestness and sincerity she always manifests are evidences of her kind heart.

JAMES T. KIER

Always on the go and in a hurry to get there, with a brief case in his hand and a smile for everyone—that's Jim. Y. M., gospel team, and Sabbath school work, and helping M. C. win victories on the debate platform and on the track comprise part of his busy life.

DOROTHY L. LAIRD

When you see her eyes so full of thought, her smile and friendliness for everyone, you know something deep and fine is in this gentle, modest maiden. A gracious deed, a cunning trick or a laugh when all is quiet and you know Doty is bubbling over with the joy she finds in life.

MARJORIE McCLEERY

Marjorie has traveled many miles to join us here at Muskingum. She is very reliable. Whether for committee work or just to help others she can always be depended upon to do what is expected of her. Her sincerity and unaffectedness adds to her genuineness.

SARAH KATHRYN McCLINTOCK

If you can look kindly you are almost certain to be kindly for people are analyzed largely by the expression of their face. We have found this true of Sarah for she is always thinking of the happiness and comfort of those around her.

M. VIRGINIA McCONNELL

A merry musical laugh and a happy spirit are Virginia's. Her voice has that joyous tone which reminds us of birds singing in springtime. But we know her for her willingness to help and her deep sense of rightness which assures us of her success in life.

LLOYD R. MCCOY

He meets all difficulties by facing them boldly whether it is in an athletic contest or in the class room. We like him for this masterful attitude. He chooses his course and follows it with eagerness. Always happy, full of fun and on the square.

ROY D. MCKINLEY

Roy is the junior who possesses an uncanny ability to strike out opposing batters in the varsity baseball games, as well as in inter-class games. His friendliness, strength, courteousness and co-operative attitude distinguish his personality.

ELDA GRACE MCKOWN

Laughable, lovable Elda, as irresistible as the lovers in melodrama. Much of her time is spent in the laboratory working out experiments and other difficult problems. Pleasant and sincere, you can count on her to do her part in all that's worthwhile.

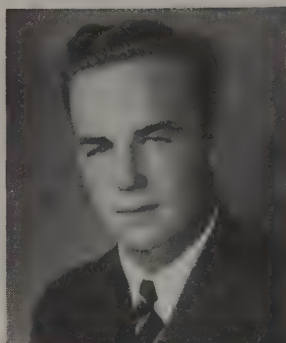

RALPH E. McLAIN

He doesn't live among us, but his class room associates can vouch for the sterling character which is there manifested in honest effort and noble success. A clear mind, a ready wit, and a hearty smile are his surest recommendations, by use of which he is sure to climb.

ELIZABETH S. MACKENZIE

Be it as "fraulein" or "mademoiselle" that she is addressed, Betty is ready to respond. That characteristic readiness is utilized in committee work for Y. W. where the faithful few become almost indispensable. She enjoys folks and can exchange thought or banter in an equally pleasant manner.

J. RANKIN MACMILLAN

Rankin is the "big" man of the class; not unusually tall, just big. He is another proof of the maxim, "To be fat is to be happy". He gets a great deal of pleasure out of smiling in that disarming manner which men of rotundity possess.

JEAN MACQUARRIE

One can't say that Jean has a dual personality, but she understands to the nth degree both sadness and happiness. We find in her a confidential friend and one to be valued as she rejoices in our good fortune and helps us in our troubles.

FRANCES E. MARSHALL

Fran is one of those persons whom you are delighted to know and be with. There is a charm and freshness in her manner which radiates joy in the heart and makes you feel that she lives life rejoicing in your joys and sorrowing in your pains.

LUCILLE R. MEAHL

Lu guards the dean's office and helps to compile all those puzzling statistics. With this position and a high scholastic standing she finds time to know others and to have many friendships for she is lively and vitally interested in all that goes on about her.

FANNIE K. MIDGLEY

A rollicking laugh peals out, midst which, in clear vibrant tones, we catch the sound of Fannie's voice. She converses easily and thus soon has a wide acquaintance among students. In a frank, decisive manner she progresses, a "well-wisher", seeking adventure.

GLENN E. MITCHELL

Regularly every day as soon as classes are over Glenn places himself on Main street across from the college entrance until some passing motorist carries him to Cambridge. He didn't start with us as freshmen but has caught up to us and is a welcome member of the class.

ROBERT P. MURPHY

Bob comes to us from Cambridge and because of his frequent trips there we see less of him around our campus. As someone who is always genial and enjoys the experiences of achievement and good times he joins in the activities to make them a success.

WILLIAM HARRY MYERS

Peppy, clever, witty, tall, good-looking—all that goes to make up a good cheer leader. It's Hank who peps up the old school spirit in our student body with a clap locomotive or a skyrocket. But there is a more serious side to Hank that tells us his thoughts ascend to loftier intellectual levels.

DALE C. NEWTON

A dale is low ground between two hills, and consequently is shielded from stormy winds by the hills and is tranquil and calm. Our Dale, however, protects himself from disturbances by overcoming his problems and willingly working at them.

OLWYN OWENS

An unusual name, but indicative of a girl possessing real pearls of friendship. A calm self-assurance puts her at ease in responsible positions. Earnestly sincere in her work, Olwyn's gayer moments are known only to those who enjoy the warm inner circle of her companionship.

ISABEL GROVE PATTERSON

She is, as it were, a fragile flower among us, to garner experience and knowledge, to shed the light which springs from a trusting heart of sympathetic love. Her constant friendship portrays a life, to which doors of greater service will open as she goes out into the world.

ELIZABETH R. POLLOCK

Beth is one of these chummy little folk, who, because they are quietly shy, are sometimes obscured in the college rush. But she has cultivated a happy circle of friends during the year since she left Sterling to lend her cheery tone to the color of a Muskingum leaf.

ARTHUR W. PRYDE

The manner in which Art has handled the year book proves that he is one of the most persistent and faithful members of the class. His punctuality, cheerfulness, friendliness, faith, and purpose in life, mark him as one with a high level of character.

EDGAR RALSTON

We have discovered that Ed spends most of his time working out experiments in the laboratory. We expect that he will achieve success as a scientist because of his efficiency along these lines.

ELOISE RAMSEY

She's so quiet that one hardly realizes she is about except for that pleasant atmosphere which she creates. If you but seek her she will take you into her circle of friendship. If you're happy she'll be happy, but if you're sad she is like a sunbeam that chases the dark clouds away.

MARY BELLE RANKIN

"Music is the soul of love". What words are more appropriate than these when you pause in the realm of musical circles to think of one who has won distinction in them? In her willing and pleasant manner she delights all with the music which is the expression of her soul.

WILLIAM S. REED

Jack, as he is better known to us, is one of the athletic chaps on our campus who is outstanding on the track team. He has shown a keen interest in the work and proven himself "a good sport, a good comrade, a good fellow in every way."

ELIZABETH REID

Libby has perhaps been unnoticed by many, because she is one of those wee lassies who works without bright lights and audience applause. She possesses a pleasant manner of conversing correctly and interestingly with anyone. The trim neatness of her appearance indicates a personality and abilities yet unproved.

EARL D. ROGERS

The class wouldn't be complete without someone like Rogers to furnish irresistible provocations of laughs and chuckles at any time on any occasion. The Rogers who is nationally known as a humorist has a competent namesake in Earl.

PHYLLIS ROMAN

Phyllis possesses that enviable quality of always appearing perfectly at home. Not that she is devoid of an insatiate desire to perpetuate jolly pranks—'t were fatal to divest her of her humor. Yet she accomplishes the real purpose of education.

MARY ELIZABETH ROSS

Hers is a cheery brightness, such as banishes the blue from each day. Musical talents combine with a delightful understanding of literary works to create Bea's personality. The secret of her sheer joy of living, lies in an unflinching purpose to give of her best.

BETTY ANN RUDDOCK

Betty's time is taken up by a certain young athlete of our college. Although she is carefree and fun loving, there is a serious side to her personality for she is studious and generous and reveals a definite love for friendship and companionship.

SAMUEL T. RUTHERFORD

Sam's irresistible smile has won for him the friendship of the entire campus. Demonstrating marked executive and journalistic ability, he has applied his pep, vim, and vigor in a very efficient manner to the Black and Magenta, Muscoljuan, and Student Council.

HENRY SCHROTH

Scrooge, he is nicknamed, is derived from a mispronunciation of his last name and not from a trait of his character for Henry is generous and friendly. Scrooge is another of Muskingum's skilled warriors of the gridiron.

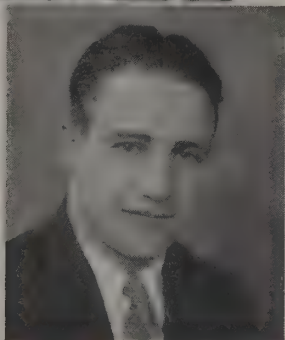

MARIAN F. SCHUFF

Marian's beauty contradicts the proverb that, "Beauty is only skin deep" for her beauty is that of mind and spirit as well. She seems to have a vision of mankind which comes from the joy of knowing and helping others.

JANE SCOTT

Kind, sincere, and capable—Jane is one of those individuals whose presence alone assures us of harmony and ease. When difficulties arise Jane's sympathetic manner and soothing voice lighten the burdens. "To seek the good and splendid" seems to be her motto in life.

DONALD S. SEMON

"Good things come in small packages", so runs the adage. Sandy is proof of this saying, for although he is small for a college athlete he is good both on the football field and the baseball diamond. He is another member of the famous Philadelphia gang.

ROSSIE L. SEYLER

Average she is, but not just common for she has an undaunted will of good nature. Robust and enthusiastic, she plays well her part in most of the girls' sports. This faithfulness to any assigned position is reenforced by a ready smile, which makes Rossie congenial in every contest.

LESTER V. SMITH

If you'll substitute a J for the L at the beginning of his first name you will have an appropriate nickname for Lester, for he is liked chiefly because he possesses a sense of humor that has converted many of his associates into accordion shaped persons.

MARGARET A. SMITH

Margaret is the kind of person "who thinks of you before herself and serves you if she can". She enjoys to chatter with friends in a little way. Her wish is to make someone else glad and show him that life is always worthwhile.

R. ELLIS SMITH

Any afternoon in the physics laboratories you can see a student intently working with some curious piece of apparatus or intricate diagram. It is Ellis solving his school work in that same determined manner that carries him so successfully in life.

ROBERT B. SNODGRASS

Bob is a quiet member of the class, but his quietness has not caused his ability to escape the notice of the class for he was elected to the Black and Magenta Board of Control. As a student, Bob is very diligent and successful, too.

LESTER A. SPENCER

Buffalo sends us Spence. He is quiet and unassuming, yet he has an interesting personality for he is an unusual combination of fun and seriousness. His prowess in athletics places him on the tennis court as well as on the basketball floor.

RUTH STALDER

At home, in the classroom, committee meetings, or entertainments, a smile is always playing in Ruth's happy round face. She artfully chases away the blues by her ingenious spirit of fun, or with tempting delicacies from the kitchen, stove, and pantry.

EUGENE H. STEVENS

Red might like to make people think he is a serious fellow, but that upturned mouth and those twinkling eyes betray his intentions. The boarders of Fort Kindle are well aware of his genius as a humorist, and—well, Fort Kindle has a special attraction in it for Red, too.

ZAILE A. THORLA

Zaile must be of an aesthetic temperament for music, literature, and religion rank first in his interests. He is a skilled violin player, and is an active participant in all the men's religious organizations. His studiousness has led him to take extra hours.

FRANK M. THOMPSON

Frank hails from Egypt where his parents are missionaries, and consequently has seen quite a bit of the world. By taking extra hours and attending summer school he has caught up to us and thus added another hard working, sincere, friendly member to our class.

SARAH ANN UHERKA

When you see the merry twinkle in her eyes you know she's happy about something. Sarah is always willing to help you do anything from sewing costumes to solving accounting problems. She's a patient and consoling friend to take your troubles to.

MILTON WADDELL

Mike as we know him, is one whom New Concord claims as her son. He is especially interested in football and plays the game with an attitude of genuine sportsmanship which shows something of the fibre of his character.

ROBERT W. WALKER

Bob's biggest trouble this year has been worrying lest the mailman should get certain letters mixed up and sent to the wrong Bob Walker. When not amusing the Albans or indulging in baseball, he peeps into his books long enough to drag out honor grades.

RUTH WALTERS

If you will penetrate that veil of unobtrusiveness which surrounds Ruth you will find a most able and interesting conversationalist. Her quiet composure she possesses as one who has learned how to learn.

RUSSELL WARDEN

Russ devotes most of his time to speech and the various activities of that department in which he is majoring. Warden is not a prison keeper, as his name suggests, but he is the keeper of a mind crowded with valuable information and thought.

MARIE E. WATERS

Ability, industry, merriment, success—so run the semesters in tracing Marie's college life. She knows her purpose and achieves it, becoming at once the friend of every classmate, and the delight of hopeful teachers. Her pleasant balance of interests points to awaiting success.

MABEL WHEELER

Everyone likes a person to whom they can turn in pleasure or when they carry a burden. Mabel will join in your gay laughter and try to bring happiness to you. She is a person who lives along to get some pleasure out of life each day.

ZULA F. WHITEHILL

Just naturally friendly—that's Zula. Talkative and jolly, she makes her way into your friendship. Her vigor and determination enable her to enjoy life in such a way that she leaves a definite impression on those around her.

ANABELLE WILLIS

Enthusiasm and a definite liking for people are the keynotes of Anabelle's character. Her kindness, loyalty, and keen sense of humor endear her to all who know her. Her dark hair, brown eyes, and lovely voice are but the outward indications of her interesting personality.

PAUL W. WOOD

Woody is another of the junior class to the Ohio Conference Football Champions of the past season. Athletics are his chief interests, but his studies are by no means neglected, and, of course, in the spring a young man's . . .

CARL H. ZINSMEISTER

Carl's labors among test tubes and flasks and other accessories in the chemistry laboratory have been consuming much of his time and energy. A quiet and persistent worker, he cheerfully dons his rubber apron and sets to work at his problems.

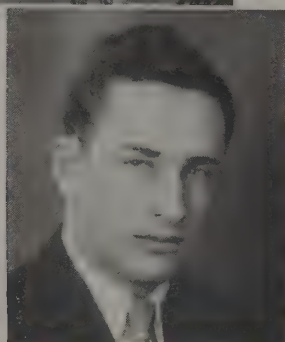

HAROLD E. HIMES

Himes is an all around fellow, well liked and conscientious. He's a valuable asset to our athletic program for he has won his four letters. Those who have heard him sing and play the trombone know that he is a musician of no mean ability.

HENRY B. MELHORN

Melhorn, even if closely observed as he goes about from Groves House to his classes, might be mistaken for a quiet and serious person. However, the inmates of Fort Kindle are well aware of his wit and of his hearty laugh.

H. ELBA SIMS

Simmy is quiet—at least in public. Steady, dependent, diligent, and particular in work, he applies much of his energy to athletics. Many a play against the left side of the Muskingum line stopped without gain because Sims was there at guard.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Howell Forgy, President; Donald Covert, Treasurer; Ruth Leitch, Secretary; Alice Smith, William McClain, Samuel Rutherford, Vice President; Gertrude Campbell, Eugene Auld, Mabel Borton, William Hughes, John Lowery.

Student Council

The Student Council at Muskingum attempts to represent the interests of the student body in all matters which involve cooperation with the administration of the college and to serve as the regulating instrument of student affairs, such as class elections, inter-class relations, and Homecoming and May Day celebrations. In addition to the usual activities of an administrative nature, this year's Council saw two of its projects materialize in the introduction of a "Scholarship Day" and a "Dad's Day" to Muskingum's campus, an accomplishment of which it is justly proud.

Dr. John J. Smith, Counselor; Robert MacDonald, President; Mildred Monroe, Secretary.
Howard Buchanan, Frances Marshall, Samuel Rutherford, John McClintock.

Student Honor Senate

The Student Honor Senate is the newly formed directing organization of the Honor System on Muskingum's campus, replacing the Student Honor Council, which, since the adoption of the Honor System, had been its administrative organ. The Student Honor Senate, which differs from the old council in that its membership is smaller and is elected directly by the student body, took as its first task the revision of the constitution under which the Honor System functions, with the result that the new constitution places increased emphasis on the educative phase of the system, seeks to reduce the judicial element to the minimum, and provides for a faculty counselor to aid in the honor education.

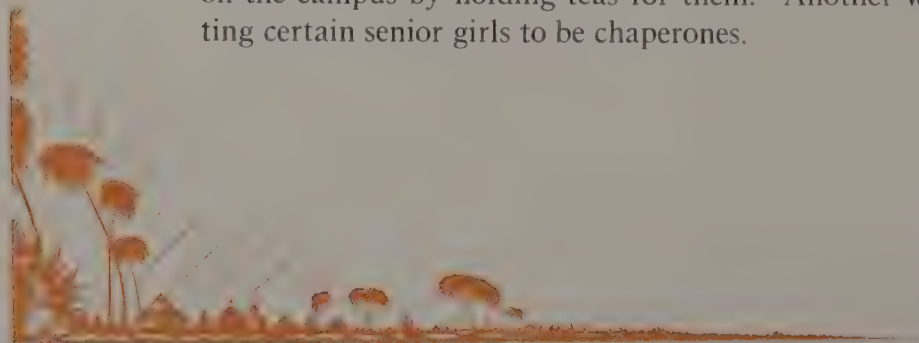

LuEllen Wilson, President; Gertrude Campbell and Roselyn McCormick, Vice Presidents; Frances Marshall, Secretary; Dean Cora I. Orr.
Virginia McConnell, Treasurer; Ruth Leitch, Ruth Stalder, Lois Campbell, Alice Smith, Dorothy Ealy, Secretary.
Lois Brown, Katherine Boyd, Audrey Lazear, Grace McGill, Dorothy Horn, Jeanette McWilliams.

Women's Activities League

The Women's Activities League has as its purpose the promotion and maintenance of the highest standards of intellectual and social life. Some of their achievements have been the Lantern Parade and other social functions, the procuring of distinguished speakers, the offering of a scholarship to one girl each semester, and government of the girls on the campus.

This year the W. A. L. has more closely linked the commuters with other girls on the campus by holding teas for them. Another worthwhile project was permitting certain senior girls to be chaperones.

Helen Wilson, Helen Stewart, Isabel Patterson, Marjorie McCleery, Catharine Dean.
Isabel Whitelock, Gertrude Campbell, Ruth Oldham, Mary Henshaw, Ann Aiken.
Edith Hicks, Evelyn McCleery, Letha Stevens, Elizabeth Elder, Margaret Hall.

Dormitory Council

The Dormitory Council is a well organized group, charged with the responsibility of helping to govern the girls in the Dormitory.

The President has general supervision of the girls and works with Mrs. Dew. Her duties are the calling of house meetings, appointing officers if there is a vacancy and presiding at house meetings.

The Vice President is the head proctor and it is her duty to see that the rules of the Dormitory are obeyed. She appoints the sub-proctors.

The Judiciary and Executive Board decide what sentence shall be given to girls who break any of the rules of the Dormitory.

RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS

Andrew Towl, President; William McClain, Vice President; Howard Buchanan, Secretary; Bruce Maguire, Treasurer; Dwight Balentine, Adviser.

The Y. M. C. A.

Choosing as the association's motto for the year the verse, "Whoso findeth me, findeth life," Proverbs 8:35, the cabinet set out to do what it could toward accomplishing the purpose of the student Y. M. C. A., and to aid the college men to think through vital problems of today.

The cabinet was composed almost entirely of seniors. Corresponding with the freshmen and sponsoring a freshman camp, helping to welcome the freshmen to the campus during Freshman Week, sponsoring with the Y. W. C. A. the all-college parties, and conducting the weekly association meeting, was some of the work of the association during the past year. Chief Justice Marshall, "Dad" Eliot, Huntley Dupre, and Mayor W. J. Grimes were some of the speakers secured during the past year.

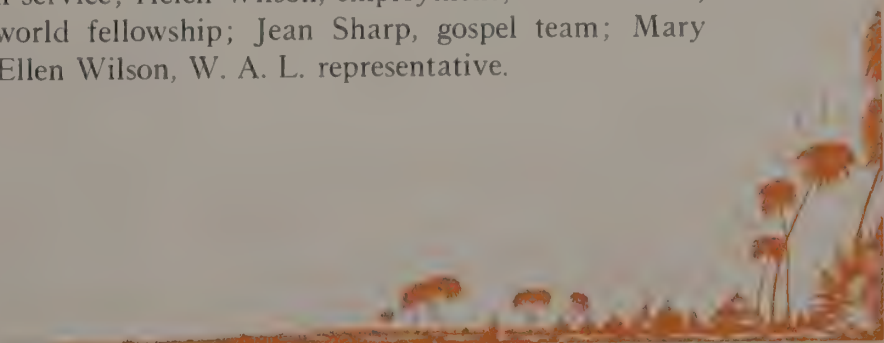

The Y. W. C. A.

"Ye are the temple of the living God."

The Y. W. C. A. has as its main purpose the deepening of the religious life of each Muskingum girl through its weekly cabinet and Wednesday evening meetings, Friendship Council dinners, and guidance of all Christian girls of the campus. The Big and Little Sister movement, the Pink Tea, George Washington Tea, and Friendly Blaze are some of the social functions which are carried on by this organization.

The members of the cabinet who guided the activities of this last year are: Lois Campbell, president; Eleanor Schwer, vice president; Luella Smith, secretary; Louise Hutchison, treasurer; Jean MacQuarrie, freshman sponsor; Alice Smith, weekly program; Ruth Leitch, social; Wilma Henry, finance; Marjorie McCleery, publicity; Marian Schuff, social service; Helen Wilson, employment; Ruth Stalder, music; Lucille McCutcheon, world fellowship; Jean Sharp, gospel team; Mary Elizabeth Ross, handbook; LuEllen Wilson, W. A. L. representative.

Men's Gospel Team

The Men's Gospel Team is an organization of Muskingum men who desire to do positive Christian work. Four aims of the organization are listed in the Gospel Team constitution. They are: to prepare qualified Christian men on the campus to do positive Christian service, to provide student speakers for religious services in churches where they are desired, to encourage and promote evangelism on the campus, and to cooperate with other service groups in developing and maintaining a deep spiritual life at Muskingum.

The team is composed of men from all four classes. It is sponsored by the Y. M. C. A., and the chairman is a member of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet.

During the past year the Gospel Team has conducted a large number of church services in nearby churches. Usually three men participate in one church service. The speakers are from the upper classes, while freshmen are restricted to conducting the services.

The fall banquet of the group has become a tradition. This year it was a formal occasion and was held at the Colonial Inn, Old Washington.

Women's Gospel Team

The Women's Gospel Team, a special department of the Y. W. C. A., has been enthusiastically busy this past year. Although it is now only the second year of its organization, it has given many students a realm in which to serve in Christian activities through service for others. Any girl who is interested is eligible for membership. This year the team has provided speakers for religious meetings, Sabbath School teachers, and sponsors of Y. P. C. U. organizations. The new phase of work for this year has been the visits the girls have made every Saturday and Sabbath to the orphanage in Zanesville.

This organization has been under the direction of Dr. Kelsey, who acts as the instructor in the work.

The officers for 1931-1932 are Jean Sharp, Chairman; Virginia Colvin, Sub-chairman; and Mary Thompson, Secretary.

The Life Service Group

The Life Service Group is a group composed of students who are interested in the Christian missionary enterprise. The purpose is to so interest students in the Christianizing of the world that they will want to dedicate their lives to Christian service. The local organization is affiliated with the Ohio Student Volunteer Union. Some of its members are also connected with the National Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions.

Each Sabbath morning a devotional meeting is held. The cabinet for this year has been: Paul Davidson, president; Claire Stitt, vice president; Gertrude Campbell, secretary and treasurer.

BLACK AND MAGENTA BOARD OF CONTROL

W. H. Wilcox, F. P. Layton, Audrey Lazear, Senior; Robert Snodgrass, Junior; Donald Dunham, Sophomore; Winston McConkey, Freshman.

Inky Pen Club

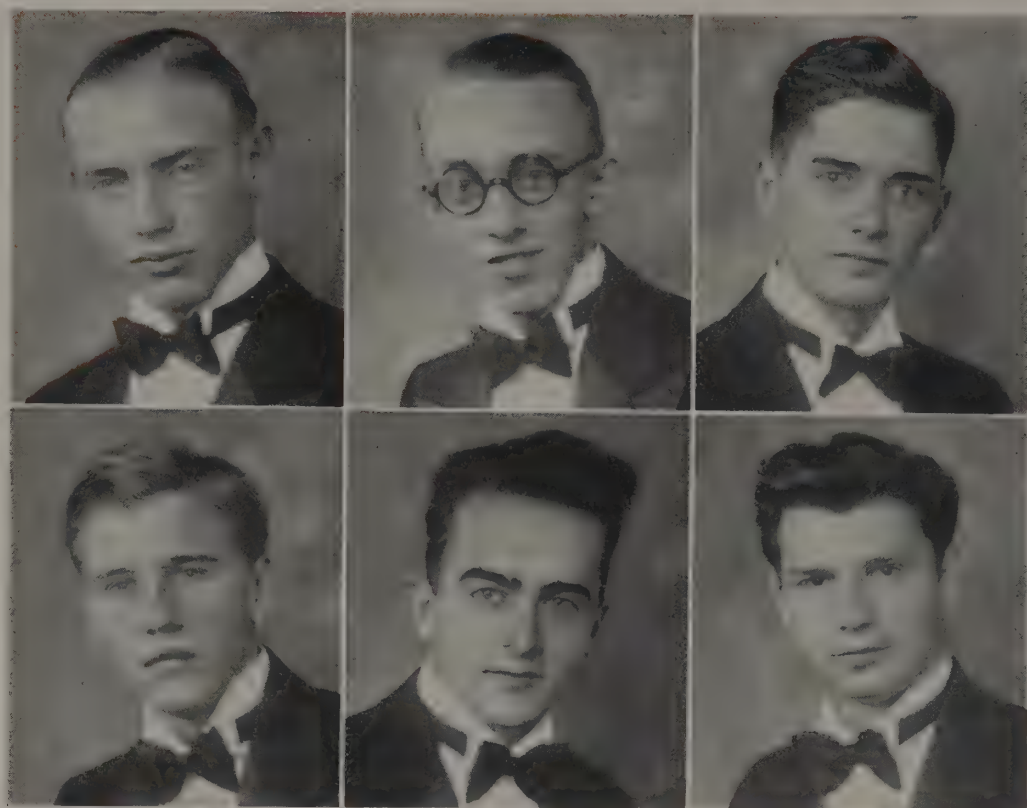

The Inky Pen Club is a social organization composed of all those who have been members of the Black and Magenta or Muscoljuan staffs. This organization sponsors parties for the members of the staffs and helps to create harmony and fellowship among them.

The officers serving during the past year were: Heinlen Hall, Lord High Fountain Pen; Eugene Auld, Lord Quill Pen; Jane Allen, Chief Ink Slinger.

ORATORY

Affirmative Debate Team

The question for debate in the Ohio Conference this year was, "Resolved, that the collective ownership and control of the means of production and distribution is preferable to private ownership and control."

The affirmative team upheld this question by indicting the present system; showing that the principle of collective ownership and control is preferable to that of private ownership and control; and presenting the idea that collective ownership and control has actually worked in practice.

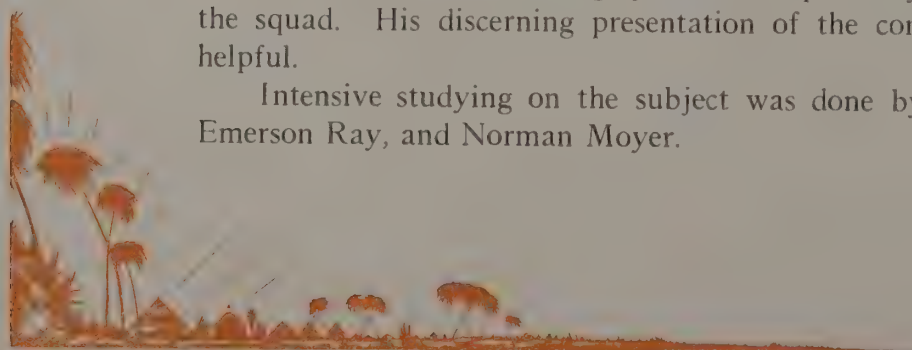

This team debated Toledo University, Capital, and Ohio University, winning only from Capital.

The success of the team was not measured by its victories, however, but in the attainment made by the speakers. Mr. Capuder, the first speaker, was outstanding because of his clear presentation of the case.

Mr. Kier, the second speaker, presented facts in a straightforward and convincing way.

Mr. Rose, the concluding speaker, was probably the most forceful speaker on the squad. His discerning presentation of the contrast of arguments was very helpful.

Intensive studying on the subject was done by the alternates, Don Wason, Emerson Ray, and Norman Moyer.

Negative Debate Team

The negative team for Muskingum opposed the question on a fair basis of comparison of the two systems, placing them side to side as to past practices, present principles, and future possibilities. From these comparisons, it logically concluded that the capitalistic regime was preferable.

Conference debates were held with Wittenberg, Otterbein, and Toledo. Muskingum was successful in winning from Toledo and Wittenberg but lost to Otterbein.

The introduction to the negative case was ably presented by William McClain. Just what was to be done and how the aims were to be accomplished were clearly set forth in this speech.

Andrew Towl, the second speaker, connected his speech with that of his colleague in a logical way and set forth his points convincingly.

The concluding speaker, Carl George, was outstanding in his performance as evidenced by his position as third speaker. His suave and poised manner in setting forth his arguments and in summing up the points of the negative, marked Mr. George as a valuable asset to the team.

Exceptionally good work was done by the alternates: Leland Isaac, Steele McClanahan and Brenton Reynolds.

Forensic Club

The Forensic Club of Muskingum College was created in 1914 to foster better forensic ability, promote an active interest in intercollegiate debate and oratory, and help those interested in these subjects get better acquainted.

Serving one year on the debate team, as college orator, or election to honorary membership by the consent of the club are the eligibility requirements necessary for membership in this organization. As a reward for completing one of these requirements, the members are presented with the triangular gold key by the college.

BRUCE B. MAGUIRE

College Orator

The college orator, Bruce Maguire, was chosen, as is the usual custom, by competitive speaking against other students of the college at a contest held in the spring of the year previous to the inter-collegiate contest. Mr. Maguire, although being defeated in the state finals, showed unusually good form in his deliverance. The material of his oration was one of great importance today. A brief sketch of the oration is given.

Who is to blame for the jumble, turmoil, and confusion of the world today?

Man, from the beginning, has engaged in a struggle to free himself from the ordinary, the mediocre, the inadequate. By his creations he has broadened the horizon of his achievement by expanding his knowledge and heightening his physical and mental powers. Truly he has created a new and glorious world of things, but it is a material world. Moneyed interests manage the levers of public opinion, dominate politics, cause economical instability with overproduction and maldistribution. Crime flourishes when men think of selfish satisfaction. Youth is lured to the fleshpots. Society has become enslaved to the Master Mechanism Material because man has built his scale of values on a false foundation—materialism.

Hope comes when man reverses his outlook and enters a virile fight for the readjustment of values. Man can cease being a puppet. He can make the Mechanism Material his servant and not his master.

"Discretion in speech is more than eloquence."
—Bacon.

DRAMATICS

"The Mob"

JUNIOR PLAY

Stephen More, very satisfactorily played by Robert Smith, was a man who believed in peace at all costs, so when England went to war, he continued to preach his doctrine. Katherine, his wife, strongly portrayed by Maybeth McRoberts, begged him to cease speaking against the government, but he could not and be true to what he thought right. So Katherine left, taking with her their little daughter, Olive, charmingly interpreted by Mildred Monroe. A mob enters the More home and Stephen is killed, but he died "faithful to his ideal."

Strong character parts were played by Wilbur Matchett as Sir John Julian, and by Harrison Rose as Captain Hubert Julian.

Completing the cast were Elizabeth Wright, Alice Smith, William Slasor, Robert Nash, Louise Hutchison, Crystal Gillogly, Nola Tidball, Milo Milanovich, Jo Clyde Strum, Paul Davidson, Evelyn Wright, Virginia Kirk, Nola Tidball, James Hysong, Harrison Rose, and Ruth Leitch.

"Ayuli"

JUNIOR PLAY

The King, dramatically played by Bruce McGuire, is in love with Ayuli, fascinatingly played by Elsie McGeorge. The people of the Kingdom accuse the King of spending their tax money on luxuries for Ayuli. Shiraman, the King's friend, played by Carl George, tries to warn the King that Zardan, interpreted by Cyrus McCown, is spending too much of the people's money. The King will not listen to Shiraman, and eventually the people demand the life of Ayuli. Shiraman tries to give his life instead but the people demand Ayuli's life.

Completing the cast were: Fanfur, a Captain of the Guard, David Hawthorne; Oran, a Poet, Betty Carson; an Old Man, a Provincial, Mildred Gibson; Two Envoys from the Provinces, Louise Hutchison, Elizabeth Wright; a Chieftain of the Rebel Army, James Hysong; a Youth, Ruth McConnell; Pages, Evelyn Wright, Virginia Kirk; Kara, Lucille McCutcheon; Luti, Thelma Thompson; Tora, Ruth Leitch; Faya, Ann Laughlin.

"Death Takes a Holiday"

SENIOR PLAY

"Death Takes a Holiday," by Alberto Casella, was the first of the two plays presented by the Senior Class. It is a fantastic and extremely fascinating play.

The setting takes place in "The Great Hall in the Castle of Duke Lambert." Death comes disguised as Prince Sirki, and while he is on earth, on his holiday, no one dies. He tests the strength of love by discovering whether or not it is stronger than death. The test fails until he and Grazia fall in love, and then love triumphs over death, because Grazia will not leave Death, even when she knows who he is.

Grazia, lovely and charming, but not influenced even by her mother who pleads with her not to go with Death, was sympathetically played by Elsie McGeorge. The role of Death was very satisfactorily depicted by Bruce Maguire. Harrison Rose as Duke Lambert and George Polovina as Baron Cesarea played strong character parts.

Kathleen Perkins, Ann Laughlin, Ruth Leitch, Jo Clyde Sturm, Mildred Monroe, Paul Moore, Donald Kennedy, and Willis Barnett added a great deal to the success of the play.

"Twelfth Night"

SENIOR PLAY

Sebastian, played by Nola Tidball, and his sister, Viola, interpreted by Alice Smith, are twins who were shipwrecked on the coast of Illyria and separated, each supposing the other to be dead. Dressed as a boy, Viola finds favor at the court of Duke Orsino, skillfully depicted by Lucille McCutcheon, and is entrusted by him to woo the fair Olivia, charmingly played by Maybeth McRoberts, alias Cesario. Viola falls in love with the Duke and discovers very soon that Olivia has taken a fancy to her.

The haughty Malvolio, humorously interpreted by Cyrus McCown, was tricked into making a fool of himself by seeking Olivia's attention by his cross-garters, yellow stockings, and his perpetual grin. The situation progresses from the ludicrous to the seriously perplexing when the twin brother makes his appearance and marries Olivia, who supposes him to be Cesario. Then Viola becomes her "master's mistress," and all is well.

Mildred Gibson as the clown, and Lois Brown as Sir Andrew played strong character parts. Edwin Hartill as Sir Toby did exceptionally good acting.

Those completing the cast were: Evelyn Wright, Evelyn Buckingham, Helen Messerschmidt, Ruth Bradley, Beulah Buchanan, Eva Lacy, Virginia Kirk, Jeanette McArthur, and Louise Hutchison.

Muskingum Players

This organization was started on Muskingum's campus in 1925, for the purpose of becoming more familiar with modern and classical dramas.

The group holds monthly meetings to discuss current drama, stage technique, different types of dramatic productions, and outstanding plays by modern playwrights.

The officers are: Carl George, president; Prof. C. R. Layton, vice president; Mildred Monroe, secretary-treasurer; Alice Smith, chairman of program committee; Cyrus McCown, property chairman; Ferne Layton, faculty secretary-treasurer.

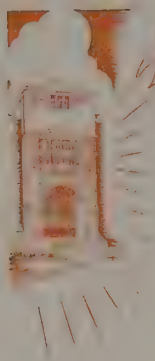

National Collegiate Players

In 1927 certain Muskingum representatives were honored in being initiated as members of the national fraternity of collegiate players. At that time Muskingum was the smallest college in membership but was granted this privilege because of the high quality of the class plays presented each year on this campus.

To become a member of this organization, a person must have earned a standard number of points based on the number of hours of acting, honor grades in academic subjects, committee work, and the maintenance of a "B" average in all work done in the field of dramatics.

This fraternity is a very highly accredited organization, and it is interesting to know that Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rand Kennedy are among its notable members.

"Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme"

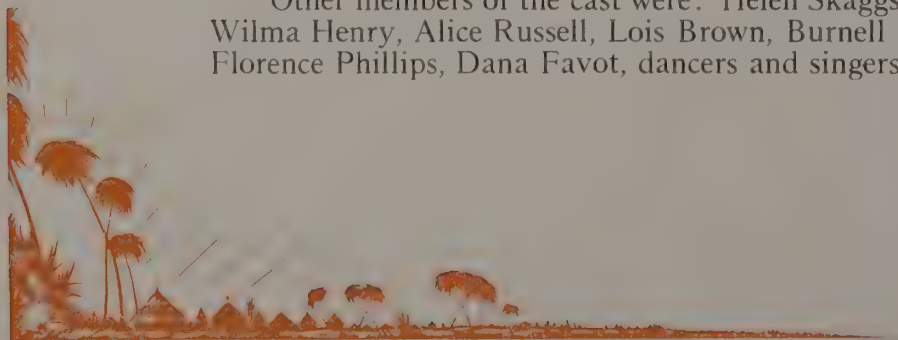

FRENCH PLAY

This play is the most famous and popular of Moliere's plays. The play treats of the ingenious Jourdain, bourgeois, who upon sudden acquisition of wealth, determines to become a gentleman of dazzling social and literary accomplishments. George Polovina interpreted this part very successfully, and Eliza Kelly had the part of Madame Jourdain.

The arrival of the fencing master is another opportunity for Jourdain's boasting. An inadvertant remark from the fencing master, belittling the arts of music and dancing, precipitates a quarrel among the three. The opportune arrival of the philosopher, the fourth aid to Jourdain's complete social metamorphoses, brings a lecture deprecating the beastly qualities of anger. Jourdain secretly admires Dorimene, played by Anna May Vortish, and in the midst of a brilliant dinner party, Madame Jourdain unexpectedly comes in.

Cleonte, played by Robert Murphy, is not a nobleman, so Jourdain refuses to allow his daughter Lucile, (LuEllen Wilson), to marry him. Some servants devise and execute a Turkish ceremony in which Jourdain is supposedly made a dignitary of Turkey for having given his daughter to a Turkish prince. But, the Turkish prince is Cleonte in disguise; Lucile marries him and we have the usual happy ending.

Other members of the cast were: Helen Skaggs, John Krivonak, James Cottrell, Wilma Henry, Alice Russell, Lois Brown, Burnell Ford, Alan Stone, Sara Seaman, Florence Phillips, Dana Favot, dancers and singers.

MUSIC

Men's Glee Club

Membership in the Men's Glee Club is determined by try-outs held at the beginning of each semester, to which every man in the college is eligible. The Club is directed by Professor Hamilton.

This year has been an unusually successful one for the Club. The annual Christmas Trip began December 28th and ended January 4th. The party consisted of twenty men and eight women from the Madrigal Club. Some of the places where concerts were given were: Pittsburgh, Zanesville, Rushville, Indiana, and Xenia, Ohio. During the year several other concerts were given in neighboring towns. The Home Concert was given February 15th and was very well received.

The business manager was Loyal Ashcraft.

Women's Glee Club

Under the capable leadership of Prof. Neuenschwander, the Women's Glee Club has completed a very successful year. Members of the Club are selected after try-outs held at the beginning of the year, to which any girl in school is eligible.

A very enjoyable concert was presented in March. Several times the club has broadcasted from WALR, Zanesville.

The Glee Club accompanist is Mary McGeehan. Its management has been conducted by Mildred Monroe.

Madrigal Club

Last year the Madrigal Club, for the first time, was offered as a college course for credit. It is composed of both men's and women's voices and is under the leadership of Professor Hamilton.

The "Messiah" was given by the Club in Cambridge and Coshocton. It also furnishes music for chapel services, assists the Glee Clubs at home concerts, and presents programs in nearby cities. This year some of the members of the Madrigal Club accompanied the Men's Glee Club on their tour at Christmas time.

Men's Quartet

The Men's Quartet has been one of the most popular of the organizations which serve as Muskingum's musical representatives. It accompanied the glee club on its annual trip and added a pleasing touch to the program through its well rendered numbers of both a humorous and a more serious nature. The quartet appeared also at the Home Concert of the glee club and on various other occasions on the campus. Included among its activities were several radio broadcasts over Zanesville and Pittsburgh stations. The quartet proved to be of real service as a nucleus for the glee club in the interpretation of unfamiliar compositions.

The members of the organization are: Harry Myers, first tenor; Paul Moore, second tenor; William Slasor, baritone; Donald Kennedy, bass; Robert Nash, pianist.

College Band

One of the peppiest organizations on the campus is the College Band. Can you imagine a football or basketball game without their help? It is one of the biggest factors in instilling that intangible spirit so necessary to a successful game.

They supported Muskingum and the team by going to Alliance for the Migration game.

A very successful minstrel at Homecoming was sponsored by the Band, and the money was used to help pay for the uniforms bought last year.

Members receive a letter for two years band work and a gold insignia for three years' service.

Gus Rankin is the very capable director and deserves much credit for the success of the organization.

College Orchestra

The College Orchestra is one of the outstanding musical organizations on the campus. The organization was begun in 1912 by Professor William Gray under whose competent leadership it has grown to a group of over fifty musicians and has secured the recognition as one among the better college orchestras of the country.

In 1915 a series of annual concerts was begun under the name of the Violin Festival. It is by this name that many have learned to know this group. In 1920 the orchestra increased its program to giving two consecutive evening performances of different selections, usually during the second week of May.

It has ever been the aim of the leader, Professor Gray, to present nothing but the best in the realm of classical music. During these years the repertoire has increased greatly and includes such works of great merit as Mozart's Symphony in D Minor, Schubert's Unfinished Symphony, the New World Symphony, Beethoven's 5th Symphony, and many other outstanding classical works of both a heavy and a lighter nature.

"Music is well said to be the speech of angels."

—Carlyle

CULTURAL CLUBS

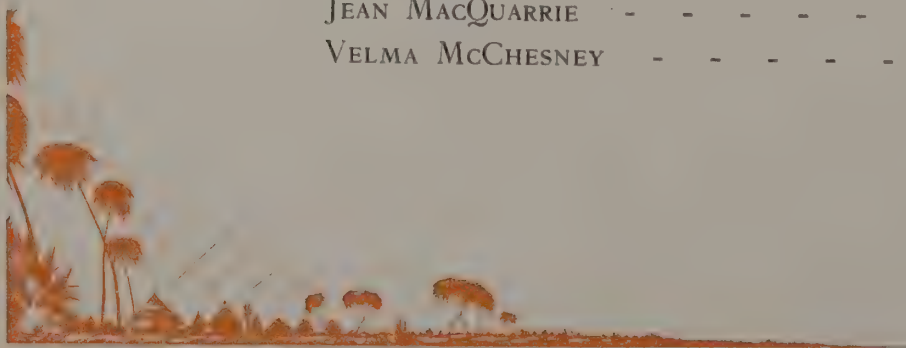

French Club

"Le Cercle Francais", affiliated with the Federation de l'Alliance Francais, is composed of those who have shown marked interest in and ability to speak the French language. The first prerequisite for membership is at least a "B" average in all work taken in the French department.

In addition to becoming better acquainted with "La France et les Francais", the members of the club enjoy a social time at each meeting and a banquet each year. One of the features at the banquet is the initiation of the new members who are elected by the executive committee.

The officers of the local organization for the past year have been:

GEORGE POLOVINA	- - - - -	President
JEAN MACQUARRIE	- - - - -	Vice-President
VELMA MCCHESEY	- - - - -	Secretary-Treasurer

Academy of Science

Muskingum's Academy of Science includes in its constituency all the divisional clubs. This general organization, then, seeks to bind into a closer unity all those students who have a closer interest in advancing the scientific cause in this modern society where scientific thinking must essentially play such an important part.

The membership of the Academy is divided into four classes: General, Fellows, Honorary and Alumni. The first group includes those who have completed at least three hours work in any one of the science departments. Fellowship in the Academy may be attained by all those who have maintained a "B" average in sixteen hours of one science. Any person of scientific distinction may be awarded honorary membership upon the sanction of the executive committee.

This group meets once a month to enjoy varied programs that are of a most contributive scientific nature. Heinlen Hall is the president this year; Wallace Copeland, secretary; and John Fullerton, treasurer. The presidents of the science clubs are vice-presidents in the Academy of Science. Professor Moses is the permanent secretary and faculty adviser.

Psychology Club

The Psychology Club is just completing its fourth year as one of Muskingum's outstanding cultural organizations, having been founded in the Spring of 1928 for the purpose of creating an interest in the advance of psychological knowledge and encouraging the discussion of such problems as might arise in individual reading and study. The success with which the organization has met is clearly shown by virtue of its recognition by the Academy of Science. The yearly program is well planned and provides for a regular monthly meeting at which time the various members present papers prepared from detailed study of some particular problem or phenomenon of psychological interest. In order to be eligible for membership, a student must have completed one course in psychology and have expressed an interest in that science by enrollment in another course which for him is an elective.

Cwens

Zeta Chapter of the Cwen National Honorary Fraternity was organized at Muskingum in 1927. On the basis of scholarship, character, participation in campus activities, and qualities of leadership, members are chosen from the Freshman class to be active during the sophomore year. It is the purpose of the Cwens to help create a better feeling of understanding and friendly relationships between under class and upper class women.

Two parties are given during the year for freshman women, one at the end of the first semester and one during the spring. Those having a "B" average are invited to the parties. A serenade was given this year the night before the migration football game.

This year the faculty advisers were Miss Cora I. Orr and Miss Virginia Gibbon.

The officers are:

ISABEL WHITELOCK	-	-	-	-	-	-	President

HONORARY FRATERNITIES

Fratres in Facultate: Paul Clark, Ralph Cannon, Heinlen Hall, President; Lois Brown, Jane Allen, Donald Covert, Samuel Rutherford, Wilbur Matchett, Wilbur Gregory, Marjorie McCleery, Arthur Pryde.

Alpha Phi Gamma

The Epsilon chapter, one of the seven original chapters of Alpha Phi Gamma, national honorary journalistic fraternity, was organized at Muskingum in 1923. The fraternity endeavors to create and to promote student interest in the attainment of journalistic honors and to emphasize the opportunities offered by a profession of such broad scope and practically unlimited possibilities as journalism. Alpha Phi Gamma is one of the foremost journalistic organizations of its type in the country and numbers among its members many eminent newspapermen and columnists. Interest in journalism, faithful service on one of the college publications, and creditable academic achievement are requirements for membership.

Fratres in Facultate: Milo H. Neuenschwander, Thomas H. Hamilton, William W. Gray; Robert MacDonald, President; John Heslip, National Councilman; Robert Nash, Donald Covert, Secretary; Cyrus McCown, Robert Smith, Paul Moore, Treasurer; Carl George, Wilbert Rankin, James Orr, Donald Kennedy, Vice President; Arthur Pryde, Paul Henderson, William Hughes, Harry Myers.

Phi Mu Alpha

Amongst musicians its "Phi Mu Alpha" for the last word in congeniality and public service. The Beta Lambda, granted its charter November 3, 1930, on the campus here confers the honor of membership upon the men of the school who have distinguished themselves in instrumental and vocal performance and who are vitally interested in the popularizing of good music.

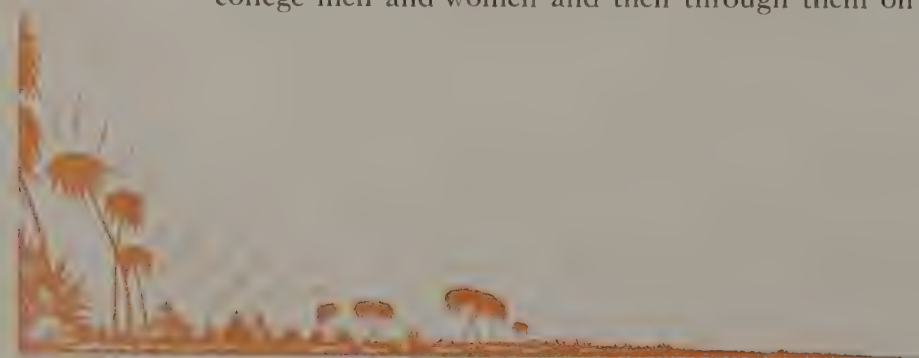

Sorores and Fratres in Facultate: John J. Smith, Helen M. Clarke, Ralph Cannon, Ralph W. Ogan, Samuel H. Lowrie.

James L. McCreight, John G. Lowery, Cora I. Orr, Jay L. Chambers, Audrey Lazear, President; Andrew Towl. Roselyn McCormick, Edna Galigher, Vice President; Milo Milonovich, Ruth Leitch, David Hawthorne, Alice Smith.

Pi Gamma Mu

Pi Gamma Mu is a national honorary society in social science which was organized in 1924. The Ohio Gamma Chapter founded at Muskingum in 1927, consisted of twenty members. The faculty elects the new members who must have at least a grade point ratio of 2.3 in the social sciences. The purpose of the organization is to encourage the study of society and of social problems by the scientific method and in the light of scientific truth, first on the part of young college men and women and then through them on the part of society as a whole.

Sorores in Facultate: Martha Hamilton, Janey M. Trace, Cora I. Orr, Athalia T. Kline, Mrs. William W. Gray, Virginia L. Gibbon.

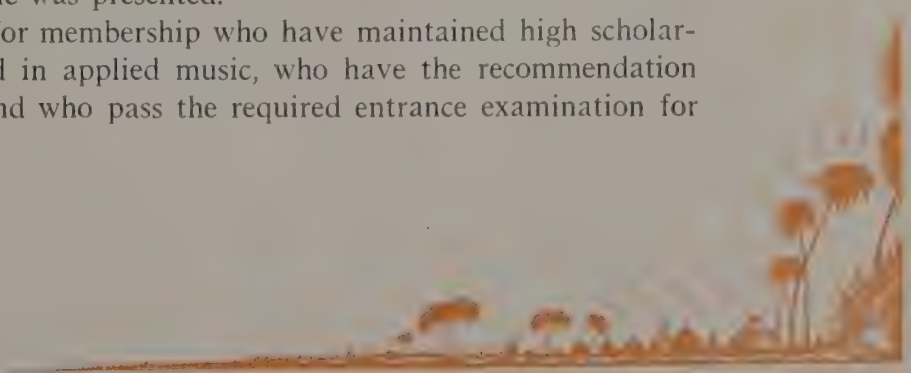

Miss Gray, Katherine Stemm, Elizabeth Wright, Mary McGeehan, President; Jane Allen, Mildred Gibson. Jean Conner, Mary Belle Rankin, Mabel Wheeler, Marion McMurray, Ruth McKinley, Agnes Smith.

Sigma Alpha Iota

Sigma Alpha Iota is a national professional music fraternity for women. The local Alpha Gamma Chapter of the fraternity was founded in 1928, when the petition for a charter was granted by the national board to the local musical fraternity called Mu Chi which had been founded in 1927.

During the past year the fraternity has held private recitals each month. On March 29 a formal Musicale was presented.

Those women are eligible for membership who have maintained high scholarship in theoretical subjects and in applied music, who have the recommendation of the conservatory director, and who pass the required entrance examination for membership.

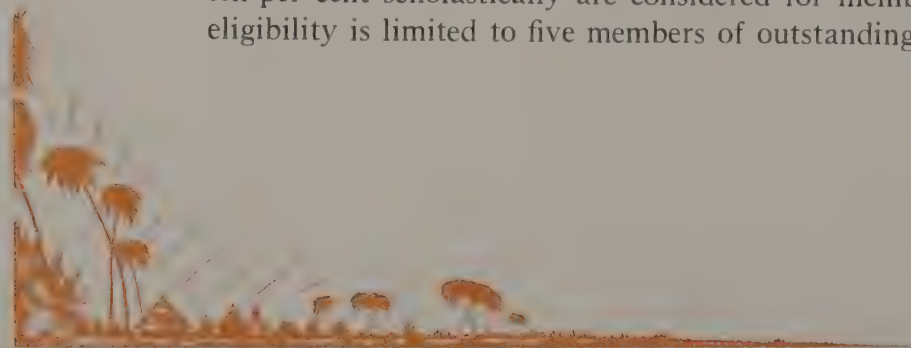

Sorores and Fratres in Facultate: Belle M. Nixon, Paul E. Clark, Ralph W. Ogan, Elizabeth H. Gordon, Helen M. Heinlen Hall, President; Ruth Leitch, Velma McChesney, Andrew Towl, Alice Smith, Vice President.

Sigma Kappa Chi

Sigma Kappa Chi, Muskingum's honorary scholastic fraternity, was organized in 1927 with the purpose of providing more definite recognition of "general culture, high character, and thorough scholarship." The Sigma Kappa Chi key carries with it the same significance as that of the nationally known Phi Beta Kappa insignia and the constitution of the local fraternity provides that in case of affiliation with the national fraternity the alumni members will be eligible to apply for membership in the national organization. Of the Senior class only the highest ten per cent scholastically are considered for membership and of the Junior class eligibility is limited to five members of outstanding academic achievement.

Sorores and Fratres in Facultate: Charles D. Morehead, Anna R. Neuenschwander, Ida C. Mason, Athalie T. Kline, Mary E. Sharp, Chester J. Marshall.

Louise Hutchinson, Ruth Leitch, Elinor Keefer, Audrey Lazear, Eliza Kelly, Robert Nash, President.

Elizabeth Wright, Mary McGeehan, LuEllen Wilson, Veima McChesney, James Cottrell, Elizabeth McMillan.

Sigma Kappa Phi

The local chapter of Sigma Kappa Phi, national honorary language fraternity, was installed in 1930, before which time it had been in existence one year as a local organization.

Only those who show outstanding ability in the languages as well as creditable work in all other branches are considered for membership. To be eligible a student must have an average of 2.3 in Latin, Greek, French, German, or Spanish as a major and not less than 1.3 in all his studies. There may not at any time be more than five juniors and ten seniors in the fraternity.

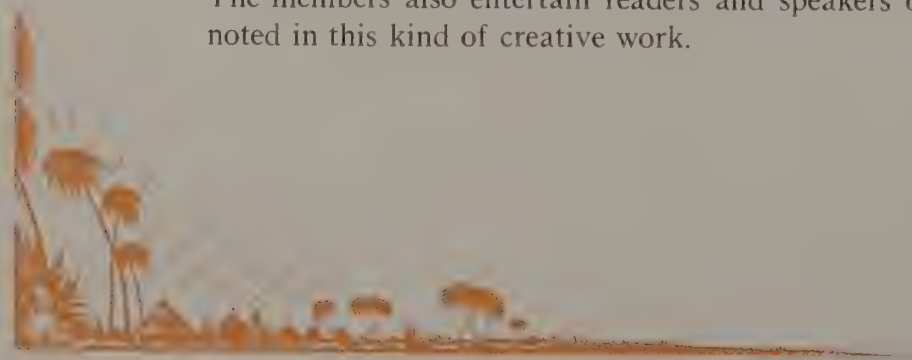

Thomas H. Hamilton, Belle M. Nixon, Beulah Brown, W. H. Wilcox, Elizabeth Gordon.
Martha Hamilton, Cyrus McCown, President; Lois Brown, Jane Allen, Robert Nash.
Donald Covert, Roselyn McCormick, Esther Jones, Malcolm Munn, John Heslip, Elizabeth McMillan.
Anabelle Willis, George Kappes, Marjorie Ormiston, Wilbur Gregory, Luella Smith, Frank Thompson.

Sigma Tau Delta

Sigma Tau Delta, the national honorary English fraternity, is represented on this campus by the Omega Alpha Chapter. The members of this organization have for their purpose the three Greek letters which signify sincerity, truth and design.

Monthly meetings are held at the homes of various members where original prose and poetry is discussed as well as many types of literature. Receptions are given at home-coming time and commencement for the Alumni of the organization. The members also entertain readers and speakers of the Lyceum Course who are noted in this kind of creative work.

Prof. Charles R. Layton, Dr. J. Knox Montgomery, Carl George, President.
Robert Smith, Bruce Maguire, Harrison Rose.

Tau Kappa Alpha

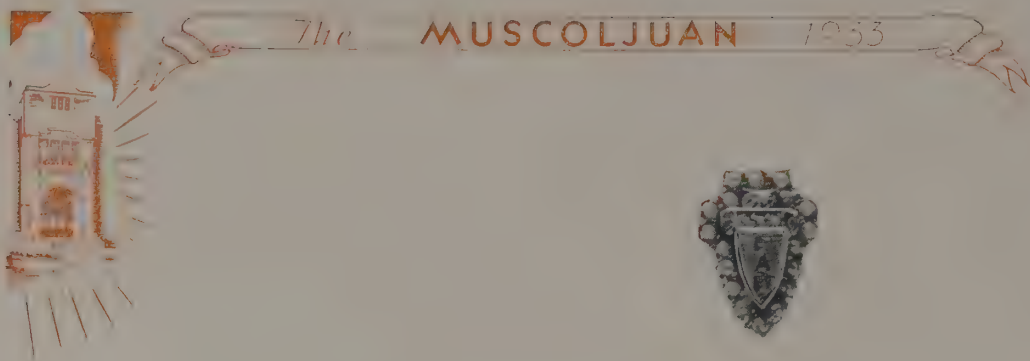

The local chapter of Tau Kappa Alpha, national fraternity of honor men in debate and oratory, was established in 1911—the oldest honorary fraternity on the campus, and the first chapter to be organized in Ohio. Membership in Tau Kappa Alpha is the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a Muskingum orator or debater and is restricted to men of outstanding forensic ability, those only being eligible who have served as an inter-collegiate debate speaker for two years, or as an alternate for two years and a speaker for one; or have participated in inter-collegiate oratory one year with the high rank or for two years as a contestant.

ATHLETICS

BY EWING BULLOWAY, N. Y.

"The building of a perfect body crowned by a perfect brain, is at once the greatest earthly problem and grandest hope of the race."

—Dio Lewis

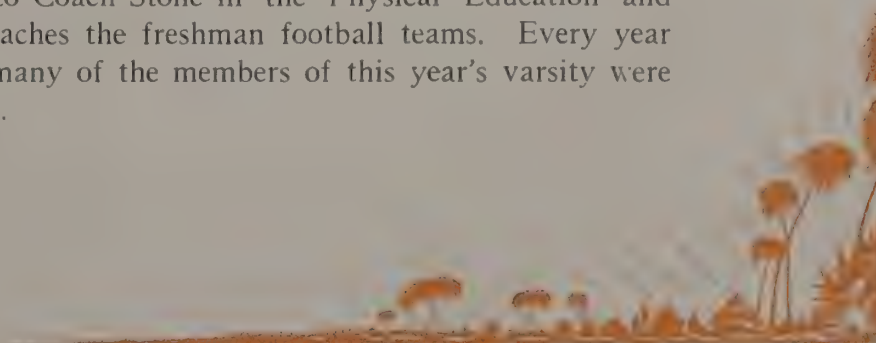

The Coaches

Muskingum is indeed fortunate in having such an able coaching staff. The teams produced here have made records consistently above the average. W. F. Lange as Director of Athletics, is in a large measure responsible for this success. He coaches football, basketball, and tennis. Muskingum has won several conference football championships, and this year again proved to be the class of the conference going through a rigorous schedule undefeated. Newspaper correspondents gave a great deal of the credit to Lange and rightfully so, because it was largely his ability to mould a winning combination out of comparatively inexperienced material that brought success. His basketball and tennis teams have also always won their share of the victories and turned in commendable records.

W. B. Stone is probably one of the busiest men on the coaching staff. He is Director of Physical Education, being in charge of all the men's physical education classes, in the fall acts as an assistant to Coach Lange in football, and coaches the cross-country teams which are near at the top of the conference and also is Head Coach of Track. His success in track may be measured in a sense by the new records which are being established in this sport every spring. Besides doing all this he also heads the Intra-Mural department which gives an outlet for some form of athletics to every man in the college.

C. D. Moorehead or "Mose" as he is more familiarly known, besides teaching French and serving on faculty athletic board, coaches baseball every spring and the success of this team must be attributed to the generous amount of time and interest which he puts into the sport.

Pooney Grimm is assistant to Coach Stone in the Physical Education and Intra-Mural departments and coaches the freshman football teams. Every year he sends up good material and many of the members of this year's varsity were under Grimm's tutelage last year.

Pep Leaders

This year at Muskingum has been noteworthy not only because of the success of its athletic teams but also because of the extraordinary enthusiasm demonstrated by the students. The credit for this enthusiasm lies with the pep leaders who performed so creditably throughout the year. "Hank" Myers, in the role of head cheer leader, proved a great success as the fine response that he merited at games testifies. "Bucky" Buchanan and "Bill" Hughes were able assistants and this trio deserves a great deal of credit for their enthusiastic and clever work.

The several pep meetings held in the course of the year were featured by the excellent work of Chet McKirahan, who served as head song leader, and Don Kennedy, who was a capable assistant.

Muskingum should recognize the unusual ability and splendid effort shown by this year's pep leaders. They have played no unimportant part in the athletic successes of the seasons just passed. Theirs was a big job well performed.

FOOTBALL

Football Review

Each year seems to find our football team growing stronger. This year's aggregation was considered by Coach Lange and all who saw it in action the greatest machine ever turned out at New Concord. This marked the third consecutive year in which Muskingum has been undefeated in the conference, and this year found them the Ohio Conference Champions and also the only untied or unteam in the state.

Although there were several men who won All-Ohio berths on many press selections the team was not distinguished by any stars, but rather by its all-around team play and indomitable fighting spirit.

CONAWAY

Muskingum opened the 1931 season with Wilmington in a night game at the Student Stadium. The opening whistle was a signal for the rain to begin and the entire game was played in a terrific down pour. Muskingum played heady ball by forcing Wilmington to handle the wet pigskin most of the evening and put over two touchdowns to win 12-0.

The Findlay team, straight from an upset victory over Case, came here next and they promised a close game, but after a stubborn first quarter the Muskies opened up and won easily 21-0.

The following week-end found Muskingum at Alliance for their first conference tilt, with the strong Mount Union outfit. When the game was over Muskingum was on top 7-0, but only after the most stubborn of battles.

Bethany from the tri-state district appeared next, and were easily defeated 19-6. Their only score came in the last few seconds when Pollard, a Bethany halfback, intercepted a forward pass and ran 57 yards for a touchdown, crossing the Muskies goal line for the first time in the season.

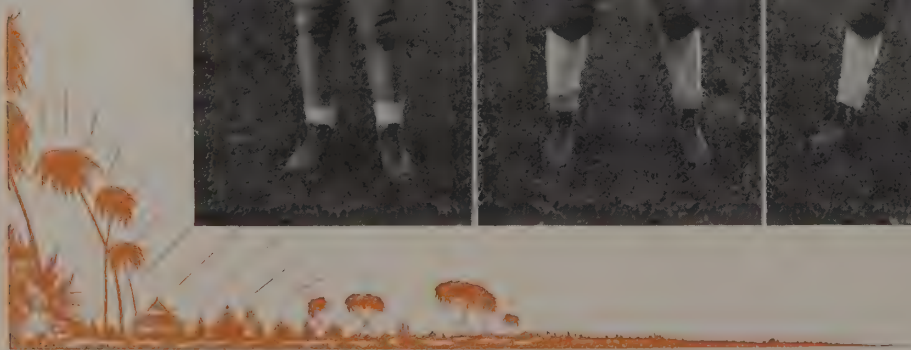

The highly touted Heidelberg team, with a record of no defeats in the conference since 1927, fell before the fighting Muskies 21 to 6. The first score came early in the game when, after a splendid march down the field, Melhorn went over from the two yard line for a touchdown. In the second quarter Zeyher made a place kick for a field goal. Again in the third period Melhorn scored and "Dutch" Furbay opened the fourth quarter by running thirty yards for the last touchdown.

Muskingum traveled to Cincinnati the next week and covered themselves with glory when they whipped the strongest team the University of Cincinnati has turned out in ten years. A field goal by Zeyher was the lone score till the last quarter. This lead looked none too safe as the game wore on, but the Muskies could not be denied and in the fourth quarter they broke loose for two touchdowns.

Wooster, the team which snapped Muskingum's winning streak in 1930 by holding our boys to a 6-6 tie, threatened to repeat the performance and for three quarters both teams battled desperately. But with the ball on the 19 yard marker as the final period opened, Muskingum got under way and after two plays Furbay took a pass from Zeyher for the initial score. Soon Zeyher circled end for a touchdown and a few minutes later he scored again after intercepting a Wooster pass and racing 50 yards. His placement was good for the final tally.

The Muskies closed their season by traveling to Ashland and winning 24-0. Muskingum easily outplayed Ashland making 19 first downs to Ashland's 5.

Basketball Review

The 1932 basketball season from the standpoint of games won and lost was one of the most unsuccessful ever experienced by a Lange-coached team. The prospects were fairly bright at the outset of the season with plenty of talented material. Although quite a few lettermen were lost from last year's team there still remained experienced men. Coach Lange worked with the squad harder than ever before, yet they seemed to lack the punch to pull games out of the fire. Muskingum however finished with a percentage of better than .500, winning 10 games and losing nine.

Probably some of the most interesting and exciting games were the Washington and Jefferson encounter, both tilts with Marietta, and the Mount Union, Cincinnati, Ohio Northern, and Otterbein contests.

After splitting even in their first four games, Muskingum journeyed to Washington, Pa. Here they took the measure of W. & J. in a thrilling game 25-24. Muskingum led most of the way but with only a few minutes to play W. & J. pulled up to them and it was largely through the cool floor work of Mariner that Muskingum was able to eke out a one point victory.

This year Marietta had a stronger team than usual and in their first meeting both teams played clever basketball with the Muskies on the long end of a 33-29 score. The second game played at the Marietta Field House was only decided after an extra period of hard fought basketball with the Muskies losing by one point.

Mount Union easily had the outstanding team of the conference as one of the smoothest working quintets seen here in several years. They rolled up a large margin at the outset of the game, but the Muskies came back and almost tied the score at half time. In the last stanza the Wrightmen put on the power with the final score being 55-33.

Although the first half of the Cincinnati game was comparatively slow and dull, the second half turned into a real contest with Muskingum winning 29-21. Mariner came through in his usual style, rolling up 13 points.

In what started to be a slow moving basketball game, but finally resulted in a fast and furious duel, Muskingum defeated Ohio Northern in the most exciting game of the season, with the final count being 29-24. The score was tied no less than a dozen times throughout the tilt. Mariner, the Muskies scoring ace, was held from scoring any field goals, but made 10 foul shots good. Hedderly, a guard for Northern, was twice injured during the first period, but re-entered in the second half to put the Polar Bears in the running by ringing up nine points.

Muskingum closed the season in a thrilling encounter with Otterbein. After piling up a nine point lead in the first half and leading throughout the second period the opponents took the lead in the last minute of play to win 30-29. Andrews dropped in the basket that sent the Otterbein team home with a win. McCoy Mariner collected 11 points to nose out Hendricks of Ohio Wesleyan for a high point man of Ohio. The final standing of the state's leading scorers was as follows: Mariner 195, Hendricks 193, Cope (Mount Union) 188.

The Otterbein game marked the last for four seniors whose loss will be distinctly felt on the court next year. "Hun" McClain, Carl Zeyher, McCoy Mariner, and Ralph Kirby were the ones to close their college basketball careers. Leonard, Himes, Sims, Spencer, Heslip, Furbay, and Waddell were members of this year's team who will be in there next season along with some very likely looking freshmen who should make the grade.

Baseball Review for 1931

The record compiled by Muskingum's 1931 baseball team would hardly indicate the real worth of the club. The team after getting off to an auspicious start by winning three of their first four games then slumped; and it was not till the latter part of the season that Coach Morehead was able to pull his boys out of the slump. They then returned to their winning ways and showed their real ability.

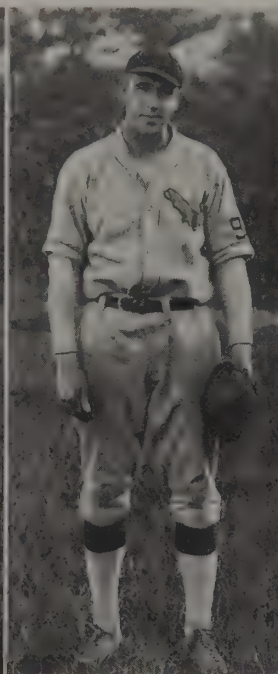

Ohio State Reserves outthit our boys to win the opener 11-6. The Columbia Cement team of Zanesville was our first victim in a 14-10 contest. In the next game the Muskies won from Oberlin 3-2. They then turned in their third straight win by taking over Kenyon 9-7.

Muskingum then had a reversal of form and dropped four straight to Otterbein, Wooster, Capital, and Ohio. Norman Wilson pitched exceptionally good ball in the Wooster game, but for a lapse in the fifth inning when the Scots scored four runs on a homer by McConihe with the bases loaded.

Sweet revenge was gained for the earlier season losses when our boys trimmed Capital 8-1. Wilson pitched another three hit game. Patton then came through with a nice game limiting the Marietta club to one run.

The last game of the season was undoubtedly the best, both from the standpoint of interest and well-played baseball. Going into the last half of the eighth Muskingum was trailing 2-3. But with Semon on the paths, Bill McClain got hold of one and sent it for the longest hit of the year, scoring both himself and Semon. Another hit followed and on the next play Hun McClain scored.

TRACK

Track Review for 1931

The 1931 track season will go down as one of record breaking performances. Too much credit cannot be given to Coaches Stone and Erwin, who brought their squad through a series of rigorous early season meets and had them at their peak when they took second place at Oberlin against the class of the conference.

The team opened the season by journeying to Oxford, where they engaged Miami University in a dual meet. Miami won decisively. Muskingum put up a good fight however, and as a result three college records were broken. Himes, participating in his first inter-collegiate track meet, put the shot 42 ft. 4½ inches for a new standard. Speed Murphy hurled the javelin 180 ft. for a record that will probably stand for some time. George Vlerebome tossed the discus 128 ft. 1½ inches to regain the record he held when a sophomore.

The following Thursday Muskingum amassed 99½ points to swamp Marietta and Capital in a triangular meet at Columbus. Muskingum entered several relay teams in the annual Ohio relays. The 440 yard sprint combination composed of Elliott, Russell, Miller, and Hartill placed second in the college class.

Geneva College from the Tri-State district came to New Concord the following week with a well-balanced squad which defeated Muskingum 82 to 44. Seven stadium records were smashed by the Geneva tracksters.

Ohio University, another Buckeye member, came next and their margin of victory was gained in the last event on the program, the mile relay. McCoy Mariner broke his own record in the pole vault by clearing the bar at 11 ft. 4½ inches.

The team met a member of their own conference next and experienced little difficulty in trimming Wooster 81 to 50. The day was exceptionally cold and windy and hampered the efforts of the athletes.

The Big Six Ohio Conference meet was held at Oberlin May 28 and 29 and was captured by Oberlin College for the third successive year. Muskingum qualified fifteen men for the finals, more than any other team. Dougal Russell turned in probably the outstanding performance of the meet when he captured first place in the 220 yard low hurdles, crossing the finish line before the remainder of the field was over the last hurdle. His time of 24 seconds flat was good enough to win him a place on the National Collegiate Track and Field Honor Roll. Speed Murphy added another record to his credit by high jumping 6 ft., $\frac{5}{8}$ inches. Vlrebome again broke the college record in the discus by hurling it 129 ft., $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches to wind up his collegiate athletic career. Harold Himes put the shot 42 ft., $4\frac{3}{4}$ inches to better by a quarter inch his former record.

Nine seniors ended their collegiate track participation with this meet and their places will be difficult to fill. Five of them hold college records at the present.

MINOR SPORTS

Tennis Review

The tennis team led by Coach Lange enjoyed a most successful season. They completed a difficult nine game schedule with only two losses, dropping both to the same team, Oberlin.

The "ladder system", which was inaugurated at Muskingum two years ago, was used in selecting the team. This gave every member of the squad a chance to demonstrate his ability. Chick Waring was number one man on the team and captain. Hawthorne, a letterman with one year's experience, ranked number two and was a very steady and consistent player. Ed Clark, a new comer, broke into the team and proved to be a real asset. Bill Minter and Phil Bikle, both veterans with two years' experience, rounded out a well balanced team.

The season was opened by walloping Capital 7 to 0. The Muskies continued their winning ways with victories over Otterbein, Marietta, Kent State, and Kenyon. The clever racqueteers from Oberlin inflicted the first loss on our boys. They made up for this however, by beating Capital again 6 to 1. The old Nemesis, Oberlin, returned again to prove their superiority by winning 6 to 1. Minter being the only one to win his match. The Muskies closed their dual matches with a victory over Wooster, 5 to 2.

Muskingum then sent her representatives to the annual Big Six tourney held at Kenyon College. In the doubles play Clark and Waring were defeated in the first round by the strong Cincinnati team by 6 to 4 and 6 to 3. Hawthorne also fell by the wayside in the first round of the singles play. Waring experienced more success by taking over McGowan of St. Xavier in the first round. He then surprised the experts by upsetting one of the favorites of the tourney, Kohler, of Heidelberg, by 6 to 3 and 6 to 3. The strain of the week's play told on Waring and in the quarter finals he lost to Richauer of Oberlin.

Cross Country Review

Muskingum again maintained her reputation for strong cross-country teams by completing this year's schedule without a defeat in dual meets and capturing second place in the Big Six meet. Cross-country this year presented an innovation as the race was changed from a four mile hill and dale affair to two and one-half miles around the cinder track. When the first call was issued four letter men appeared but after the tryouts only two letter men were on the team, Bucky Buchanan running his third year in varsity competition and Jack Reed with one year's experience. Four new men completed the team, Hale, Snodgrass, Wilson and Fullerton.

They met their first test successfully when they defeated Otterbein in a night meet, 20 to 35. Buchanan ran a beautiful race to take first place, leading the runners practically all the way. Reed, after trailing two Otterbein men for most of the race put on a last lap spurt to take second. Bradshaw of Otterbein came in third, followed closely by Snodgrass and Hale; two more Otterbein men finished next and then came Wilson and Fullerton to give Muskingum low score and a win.

The next meet was held here against Wooster on Homecoming Day, and while the football team was taking over Wooster, the harriers made it a double killing by making 22 points to the Scots 33. Buchanan again took first place, running the course in the fast time of 13 minutes and 23 seconds. Whitcomb of Wooster gave Buchanan a battle for a time, but had to be content with second place. Jimmy Kier, a letter man from last year's team, came back and won a place for himself on the team and showed he had returned to form by placing third; Brown of Wooster came in fourth followed by Reed, Snodgrass, and Hale. Bostrum of Wooster crossed the line next and then Wilson of Muskingum followed by three Wooster men.

Coach Stone's men closed the season with the Big Six, Ohio Conference meet at Wooster when they again took second place. Oberlin won the meet for the third successive year, by placing six men or their entire team in the first ten positions. Buchanan lost for the first time during the season, but captured third place; Kier came in seventh. Reed and Hale were just edged out of the honor positions by placing eleventh and twelfth; Snodgrass finished seventeenth and Wilson twenty-third.

"M" Club

The "M" Club is Muskingum's honorary men's athletic organization, which aids in banding together the athletes in the various sports. In order to be eligible for membership a man must be the holder of a varsity letter in some phase of athletic activity.

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

Women's Athletic Association

The Women's Athletic Association of Muskingum College fosters interest and participation in women's sports, promotes a higher degree of efficiency in health and in scholastic achievement and, engenders in Muskingum college women consciousness and college spirit.

The W. A. A. sponsors a program of class and intra-mural sports including hockey, basketball, baseball, tennis, archery, volleyball, hiking, and dancing. For participation in these sports points are given and awards made on the basis of the points earned.

The officers of the Women's Athletic Association for the year 1931-1932 are: President, Alice Smith; Vice-President, Velma McChesney; Secretary, Mary Henshaw; Treasurer, Mary Thompson.

"A" Association

The "A" Association is an honorary athletic organization for girls and is the highest honor that a girl may attain in athletics. The girls are elected by the active members and are held on probation for a period of one year before they are granted full membership.

It is this organization which makes use of the terms "red A's" and "white A's". These terms are used to signify the length of time that a girl has been in the association.

Elsie McGeorge has been president of the organization this past year and, as is the custom, shortly after May Day this spring the names of the new members of the association were made public. The insignia is pinned on the new members and worn throughout the day, which is known as "A" day.

There are two big projects carried out by this organization, the observance of health week and the May Day program. Ruth Leitch, a member of this organization, with the aid of the Misses Horner and Dorr, was the chairman of the May Day program for this year.

Hiking Club

The Hiking Club is one of the divisions of the Women's Athletic Association that is active throughout the entire school year. Early in September an opportunity is given for every girl of the college who is interested in hiking, to become an associate member of the organization. In order to become an active member the associate is required to hike 25 miles before Thanksgiving. Further mileage credit counts towards W. A. A. awards.

Along with the physical development which comes to those who regularly participate in this activity, there is a development of personality through social contacts. While several novel group hikes are planned throughout the year which are open to all members, every effort is made to maintain the interest of those who choose to hike in smaller groups.

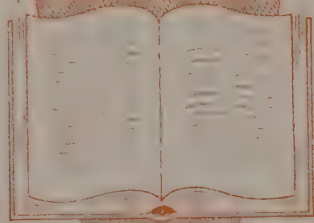

Officers of the Hiking Club for the past year were: Head of sports, Sara Seaman; junior mileage secretary, Mary Sue Dennison; sophomore mileage secretary, Helen Boyer; freshman mileage secretary, Margaret Stewart.
